

In MFL we aim to foster a learning environment supporting students to become global citizens. Our use of cultural resources interleaved throughout the curriculum, help to bring the language to life in the classroom, creating cultural experiences for all.

Outside of language lessons there are opportunities for students to develop cultures. Throughout the A-level curriculum students constantly research and form opinions on cultural topics.

As part of the speaking assessment students prepare an Independent Research Project (IRP), enabling them to have dedicated study time for intense research on a topic of their choice from the French/Spanish speaking world.

Furthermore, students have the opportunity to attend a workshop at Manchester University to get expert
